

Reservations are Recommended for this
Homeowner Program
July 14th, 7:15 p.m.

In order to ensure all attendees receive a copy of the hand-out material, reserve your seat now!

Please call the City of Prescott Public Works Department at 777-1130 for reservations.

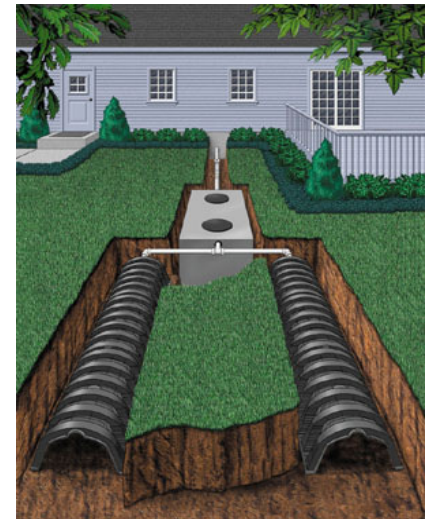

*A Special Invitation
For Septic System Owners
Free Education Program*

DO YOU OWN A SEPTIC SYSTEM?

Don't Miss This

FREE HOMEOWNER EDUCATION PROGRAM

Tuesday, July 14, 2009
7:15 to 8:45 pm
The Mackin Building
840 Rodeo Drive, Prescott
(Old Fairgrounds)

Learn How To:

- Properly care for and maintain your system... and save money
- Extend the life of your system and enhance the value of your property
- Recognize common system problems... and learn what to do
- Understand regulations that apply to your system
- Protect your family's health, our groundwater and the environment

YOU'LL ALSO RECEIVE AN UPDATED SEPTIC SYSTEM HOMEOWNER'S MANUAL FOR REFERENCE

PRESENTERS

Yavapai County Environmental
Unit Staff:
Geoff Meek, RS, Manager
Suzanne Ehrlich, RS, Senior
Environmental Health Specialist

Brian Bishop, Septic
System/Wastewater Treatment
Professional

Date, Time & Place

Tuesday, July 14th

7:15-8:45 pm

The Mackin Building at the Old Fairgrounds

840 Rodeo Drive, Prescott

Light refreshments served

This special Homeowner's
Education Program was developed by the Arizona Onsite
Wastewater Recycling Association
(AzOWRA) and the Yavapai
County Development Services
Environmental Unit.

Supporting sponsors include:
The City of Prescott, Prescott
Creeks Preservation Association, and Prescott Area Association of Realtors®.